FREE LOVE SPELL (1) try it before midnight

You take a red or pink candle scented oil (or perfume but oil is recommended) which is your favorite, and you take a piece of red construction paper, or plain white paper and color it red, and cut out a heart. You turn out all lights and make sure your away from anything that will cause disturbance. You light the candle (turn off the lights) put it in the center of the paper heart, drip a couple of drops of the oil on the heart and say:

"May the corn stone of my affections be grace and goodness, and let my love know no boundary, for the greater my love for others, so in kind will that love come back to me." and that should attract love, if you want love from a certain someone, you should say "I Love _(Name of person)_" ten times after repeating the last verse. god bless thee all.

FREE LOVE SPELL (2)

try it after midnight

On a night when the moon is in a waning phase, write your name and the name of your bewitched lover on the side of a white votive candle. Anoint the candle with myrrh oil, light it, and say:

"I BURN THIS CANDLE AS A TOKEN OF THE SPELL THAT BINDS OUR LOVE. LET THIS MAGICK NOW BE BROKEN BY THE POWERS OF THE GODS ABOVE"

Allow the candle to burn itself out. After the leftover wax has cooled and hardened, wrap it in a piece of white silk, tie it tightly with a white ribbon, and then toss it into the sea or into a river

Blessed Be,
Agnes TAYLOR
